U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Bronz,

Thank you for your letter of 19 May suggesting that the Board review the arrangements we have with you.

Your letter was considered at a meeting of the Board yesterday and the Board has asked me to say that it accepts your proposal that we now enter into an arrangement under which you will be retained by the Board to handle our interests in all relevant administrative proceedings, including Section 22 investigations, and maintain a general watching brief; the fee for these services to be U.S.$9,000 per year and the arrangement to become effective on 1 July 1970.

I might add that the Board paid tribute to the excellent work you have always done on behalf of this industry and expressed considerable satisfaction in the knowledge that you will continue to be associated with us.

Yours sincerely,

S.T. Murphy,
General Manager (Designate)

Dear Stan:

When I undertook to represent the Board as its legal counsellor in Washington two years ago, it was under an arrangement made orally with Sir Andrew Linton, and confirmed by an exchange of letters with Arthur Ward. At the time this arrangement was undertaken, it was difficult to know the extent of services which might be required. Arthur recognized in his letter of March 29, 1968, that this retainer would be primarily for keeping the Board informed of developments, but that separate compensation would be appropriate for major administrative proceedings. It was suggested that, after the early years of the arrangement, it would be possible to come to some mutual agreement on an annual fee. As you know, there have been several administrative proceedings for which I have billed the Board separately, in addition to a retainer at the rate of $6,000 per year. The amount of the annual retainer was my suggestion, based upon the arrangement I had had with the Meat Producers Board for many years. I am today writing to the Meat Board and proposing an increase in this amount.

Based on the experience of the past two years, I am now prepared to propose a fixed retainer arrangement, which would cover such administrative proceedings as those under Section 22, as well as a general watching brief, on the same basis as that I am proposing to the Meat Board, at the rate of $9,000 per year, effective July 1. In view of the frequency of Section 22 and other proceedings here affecting dairy products, this basis would reduce the Board's cost for my services below that which has been paid in the past two years.

I hope the above proposal will prove acceptable to the Board. I will bill you for the current period at the retainer rate used in the past.

Sincerely yours,
